

I am writing to urge you to prevent the proposed budget cuts to the DDS budget. I have a 19 year old nephew with autism and he will never be independently employable. My family needs assistance and so many others do too -vocational programming and group homes are already hard to come by. Please don't further handicap the 1 in 68 families trying to help their autistic family members.

The numbers keep growing!

Thanks,
Renee Case